ORAL JUDGMENT

By way of the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner had challenged the show cause notice dated 22nd June 1993 by which for irregularity in the examination the petitioner was called upon to show cause and remain present before the Committee on 2.7.1993.

2. It is required to be noted that apart from the fact that the present Special Civil Application was against the show cause notice, no interim relief was granted by this Court while admitting the present Special Civil Application, and therefore the proceedings before the Committee of the respondent No.2 University must have been concluded. Hence, by afflux of time, the present Special Civil Application has become infructuous. The petition is accordingly dismissed as having become infructuous. Rule is discharged. No order as to costs.
